BPA Course Programm 2013

The Blutspureninstitut was the first institution in Europe to offer regular BPA courses in Europe which fulfilled the IABPA criteria's. Since the start of the training unit it has trained persons (members of police forces, lab scientist, forensic pathologists) from 15 different countries on a scientific basis.

In 2013 the following courses will take place:

Basic BPA (English): 22.-26. April 2013

Basic BPA (German): 3.-7. June 2013

Advanced BPA (English): 14.-18.Oktober 2013

Advanced BPA (German): 23.-27.September 2013

An additional Basic Course will take place at the end of the year. The dates for this are to be set.

All units are offered for In-House-Trainings, furthermore a two day unit "Terminology of BPA". For a costs estimate please contact the Blutspureninstitut.

All courses fulfil the IABPA criteria's.

Instructor:

MD Dr. Silke Brodbeck, appointed and sworn expert for Bloodstain Pattern Analysis and Crime Scene Reconstruction.

She graduated from Medical School of Johann-Wolfgang-Goethe University in Frankfurt / Germany. She is court approved in the four European countries and has done case reviews for officials in several other countries. As an instructor she has taught persons from 15 countries in the field of Bloodstain Pattern Analysis in Usingen. She has taught BPA in Enfsi-Labs, police and medical departments within Europe. She is author of scientific articles and two books, e.g. "Blutspurenmusteranalyse". She is a full member of IABPA, ACSR and the German Association of Criminalistics (DGfK).

Costs: The final price per person is 1150,00 Euros. This includes all materials, scripts and the coffee breaks.

Accommodation and food is not included in this price.

Accommodation:

The Blutspureninstitut is in the city centre of Usingen located. Directly over the street is the "Hotel zur goldenen Sonne". This gives special rates for the course participants of the Blutspureninstitut approx. between 35,00 – 45,00 Euros per night including breakfast. The hotel has a parking space directly at the hotel. (contact at www.hotel-zur-goldenen-sonne.de)

Food:

In Usingen centre are several different restaurants in walking distance available

Location:

The courses will take place at the Blutspureninstitut. The Blutspureninstitut is located in the near of Frankfurt am Main. There is a train connection from Frankfurt, which costs approx. 7 Euros. Cabs are available at the airport. Next Airport is FRA – Frankfurt international airport.

Courses:

The 40-hour BPA courses are starting Monday mornings at 9.00 o'clock and are ending on Friday afternoon. On the mornings the theoretical part takes place and in the afternoon the practical parts do take place.

Basic Course:

We recommend bringing a camera for the documentation of the practical results.

Advanced BPA Course:

For the participation in the advanced course a camera is mandatory (please no smart phone, but even a compact camera will do fine).

Furthermore a case presentation is required. In case that no case presentation is possible an alternative task will be given.
